ORDER

On September 16, 2011, Administrative Law Judge Mark Carissimi of the National Labor Relations Board issued his Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that it take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices. Subsequently, the Acting General Counsel and the Respondent filed exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision and briefs in support, the Acting GC filed an answering brief in response to Respondent's exceptions and the Respondent filed a reply brief in response to the Acting General Counsel's answering brief.

Thereafter, on March 29, 2012, the Acting General Counsel and the Respondent filed a joint motion requesting withdrawal of their exceptions. By an unpublished Order, dated April 20, 2012, the Board granted the Acting General Counsel's and the Respondent's joint motion to withdraw their exceptions.

As no exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision remain, pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in his Decision, and orders that the Respondent, Case Farms Processing, Inc., its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated, Washington, D.C., April 23, 2012.
